PESHAWAR: Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Governor Faisal Karim Kundi has said that poverty is the root cause of social disparities and extremism, stressing that equality, justice and collective efforts are essential to eradicate it.

Addressing a conference on strong communities and combating extremism through poverty reduction programmes in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa held here on Friday, he said a prosperous and peaceful future was directly linked to economic and social development.

Pakistan Poverty Alleviation Fund (PPAF) in collaboration with the KP Centre of Excellence on Countering Violent Extremism (CVE) and Paigham-i-Pakistan organised the conference at the Governor's House.

Mr Kundi said unemployment, poverty and lack of opportunities bred despair and exploitation.
